

JAMES GOTHARD

Experience

Government and History teacher at George Washington High School, Indianapolis, Indiana 1965-1969

Deputy Prosecuting Attorney, Tippecanoe County, Indiana 1969-1972

Private Practice of Law, Lafayette, Indiana 1969-2013. Retired as senior partner from law firm of Bennett, Boehning & Clary, July 2013

Continuing Lecturer, Purdue University Krannert School of Management, Business law 1986 to present

Education

Bachelor of Education, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana 1965

Doctor of Jurisprudence, Indiana University at Indianapolis 1969

Civil and Domestic Mediation Training & Certification

Activities

Purdue University: standard bearer and/or school marshal at various commencement services, presenter at University sponsored legal forum for fraternities and sororities, and presenter at Student Government programs concerning landlord and tenant legal issues

Elected Lafayette City Council member, one term
Former member of Lafayette Breakfast Optimist, Board of Family Services, Board of Big Brothers and Big Sisters.

Currently:

Volunteer at St Elizabeth Hospital